

Terms of Use

- Malaria Consortium and Montrose own the “Interactive Malaria Guide” website. You may access and use this website if you agree to be legally bound by the terms set out here. If you do not agree to be legally bound by these terms, please do not access and/or use <http://www.malariaconsortium.org/interactive-malaria-guide/>.
- This website is intended for use only by people who are seeking information on malaria in the Asia-Pacific region.
- We may make changes to the Interactive Malaria Guide, including these terms, at any time. You will be legally bound by the updated or amended terms from the first time that you use the Interactive Malaria Guide after we publish the changes on <http://www.malariaconsortium.org/interactive-malaria-guide/>.
- You may copy, download, adapt or print off copies of the materials, information, data and other content included on the Interactive Malaria Guide for non-commercial use, including personal use with the following exceptions:
  - The rights in images, trademarks, trade names, logos and so forth included in the Interactive Malaria Guide are owned by Malaria Consortium, Montrose and/or third parties. You will need to obtain permission in writing from the owner before you may use these images, trademarks, trade names, logos in any way.
  - You will need to obtain permission in writing from Malaria Consortium and Montrose before you make any other use of the content in the Interactive Malaria Guide.
- Information provided on the Interactive Malaria Guide, particularly on drugs for chemoprophylaxis and treatment, does not replace the need for one-on-one medical advice. Each individual’s health issues should be considered before decisions on chemoprophylaxis options or on clinical management are taken.
- We do not accept any liability to you should the Interactive Malaria Guide not be available at any particular time.
- We accept no liability to you for any of the following types of loss or damage (which you may suffer as a result of your use of the Interactive Malaria Guide) whether these losses were foreseen, foreseeable, unforeseen, unforeseeable, known, unknown or otherwise:
  - loss which arose when you first accessed the Interactive Malaria Guide (even if that loss results from our failure to comply with these terms or our negligence);
  - any business loss you may suffer, including loss of revenue, loss of profits or loss of anticipated savings (whether those losses are the direct or indirect result of our default);
  - loss which you suffer other than as a result of our failure to comply with these terms or our negligence or breach of statutory duty;
  - any loss suffered due to the default of any party other than us.
- We do not warrant that the Interactive Malaria Guide and any content will be available uninterrupted or without errors, that defects will be corrected, or that the Interactive Malaria Guide or its supporting systems are free of viruses or bugs.

- We do not accept any liability to you if we fail, or are interrupted or delayed in the performance of any obligation because of:
  - the non-availability or failure of any telecommunications or computer services, systems, equipment or software operated or provided by you or any third party;
  - any other event not reasonably within our control.
- We do not accept any liability to you in respect of content provided by third parties.
- To the extent that we are practically able to do so, we may terminate your access to any part of the Interactive Malaria Guide at any time without notice if found to be in breach of any of the terms.
- If any of these terms are determined to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, then the remaining terms shall remain in full force and effect.
