1. Purpose and context

The aim of Malaria Consortium's fraud and anti-corruption policy is to minimise fraud through a series of measures, including clear policies and processes, regular internal and external audits and training for all staff.

2. Principles

Malaria Consortium is committed to investigate any and all suspected acts of fraud, misappropriation or other similar irregularity. Detecting fraud and corruption is everyone's responsibility and if any incident or potential incident is discovered staff must report it immediately, as required by Malaria Consortium's whistle blowing policy.

3. Scope

Malaria Consortium is committed to maintaining an untainted reputation with its donors, partners, beneficiaries and vendors. All Malaria Consortium employees are under obligation to maintain integrity in all actions and must avoid circumstances that compromise their decisions or actions. All employees must ensure that the ethical business practices and interests of the organisation are observed.

It is a major violation of Malaria Consortium's policies for employees to knowingly conceal, falsify or misrepresent a material fact relating to any transaction. Misrepresentation may include but is not limited to: signing for receipt of goods or services not yet received or completed, or altering any document to disguise or change the outcome, including the back-dating of documents. Proven violations will lead to disciplinary action up to dismissal from employment and legal action.

4. Definition and terms

Fraud is defined in the UK Fraud Act 2006, as false representation, failure to disclose information or abuse of position, in order to make a gain for yourself or another or to cause or expose another to a risk of loss. Fraud covers an act of deception, bribery, forgery, extortion, theft, misappropriation, false representation, conspiracy, corruption, collusion, embezzlement, or concealment of material facts.

Anti-corruption: relates to the measures taken to eradicate or prevent dishonest or fraudulent conduct.

Both corruption and fraud amount to abuse and theft. Acts of fraud and corruption include, but are not restricted to:

- Falsifying time sheets or payroll records
- Falsifying travel and entertainment expenses
- Fictitious reporting of receipts from suppliers or shipments to customers
- Creation of false invoices or purchase orders, including the back-dating of documents
- Misappropriation of Malaria Consortium and donor equipment, resources and even data
- Misstatement of income
- Misstatement of assets
- Understatement of liabilities
- Paying bribes, that is payment to another person to induce a certain action from them, this includes payments to officials such police officers requesting unofficial payments on road blocks
- Receiving money or gifts in order to undertake a certain action for example ordering with a specific supplier
- Obtaining Malaria Consortium income or assets by deception
- Claiming to provide services to beneficiaries that do not exist, and other forms of identify fraud

5 Implementation

Steps to mitigate occurrence

The organisation adopts the following anti-fraud measures to minimise its risk from fraudulent activity:

- Clear policies on the expected conduct of staff in the organisation, for example Anti-Bribery and Code of Conduct communicated as part of induction programme and updates staff in team meetings.
- Records and investigates all incidences including suspected and confirmed fraud, in line with Malaria Consortium Guidance on Conducting a Fraud investigation.
- Reports fraud to the police and to the Charity Commission.
- Implements robust controls and informs staff about the procedures and measures in place.
- Ensures records of all income and expenditure are kept and receipts, invoices and supporting documents are adequate.
- Checks that financial controls are not overridden, by-passed or ignored
- Reconciles bank accounts monthly and conducts spot checks
- Uses tiered delegated authority and signature levels for all payments
- Restricts and closely monitors access to sensitive information

- Implements an Internal Audit function reviewing processes and procedures on a risk basis
- Establishes clearly defined roles for staff that include segregation of duties

Malaria Consortium has a zero tolerance to fraud and corruption. Malaria Consortium will apply robust sanctions to combat fraud and corruption including disciplinary action and reporting suspected criminal activity to the police.
